

We're nanny tax specialists. So you don't have to be.

More than ever, families are balancing hectic lives by relying on caregivers—from nannies to senior companions, personal assistants to housekeepers. And as you help your clients navigate all the choices that impact their financial decisions and tax liabilities, it can be difficult to stay current on the specifics associated with household payroll.

ONE PARTNER. ONE SOLUTION.

With Care.com® HomePaySM, provided by Breedlove—the leaders in household payroll for over 20 years—you have an ally on all matters related to your clients' household employment obligations, including payroll and taxes. Our specialists will:

- Monitor all state, local and federal communications, including changes to household employment, tax and labor laws
- Manage payroll calculations and tracking each payday
- Prepare & file state and federal employment tax returns
- Prepare & distribute Form W-2
- Prepare & file Form W-2 Copy A/Form W-3 each January
- Prepare Schedule H to be filed with their Form 1040

As an authorized contact for your client, you'll have unlimited access to all of this information online, and the tools you need to keep your clients current and compliant.

“It’s April 13th. And by the way, I have a nanny.”

Situation: An accountant called us two days before the April 15th federal tax deadline with a dilemma. “My client just came to me as I’m finalizing his tax returns and mentioned that he’s had a nanny all year. I don’t have the nanny’s name, social security number or payroll information. There’s just no way I can finalize the return and Schedule H in time. My client said to call you.”

Outcome: We told the accountant, “Don’t worry, everything has been taken care of. We’ve filed all of the forms for your client, and the Schedule H is done. All you a login to access the client’s account as an authorized user to view all of the documents.”

The CPA was able to access the Schedule H and all relevant documentation from the HomePay online system and file the client’s tax return on time. He was so amazed, he said, “I’ll never do household employee taxes myself again. HomePay saved the day!”

have to do is attach that to the income tax return. We’ve remitted payments throughout the year and we can provide you with
